(Bloomington, IL | March 25, 2022) – OSF HealthCare St. Joseph Medical Center has been awarded on Newsweek's list of World's Best Hospitals 2022. This prestigious award is presented by Newsweek and Statista Inc., the world-leading statistics portal and industry ranking provider. The awards list can currently be viewed on Newsweek's website.

"To be selected as one of the world's best hospitals by Newsweek is a testament to the excellent care provided by our Medical Staff and clinical team," said Lynn Fulton, president, OSF HealthCare St. Joseph Medical Center. "Despite the challenges of a global pandemic, our team continued to deliver on our promise to serve with the greatest care and love."

Newsweek and Statista developed a complex methodology to ensure the quality and validity of the ranking. Three data sources were used for the evaluation:

- Hospital recommendations from peers: an international online survey sent to more than 80,000 doctors, hospital managers & health care professionals
- Patient experience: surveys measuring patient satisfaction with hospitals
- Medical KPIs: patient safety, hygiene measures, and quality of treatment

The World's Best Hospitals 2022 recognizes the best medical institutions across 27 countries: USA, Canada, Germany, France, UK, Switzerland, South Korea, Japan, Singapore, Australia, Israel, Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Finland, Thailand, Italy, Brazil, India, Spain, Mexico, Saudi Arabia, United Arab Emirates, Colombia, Austria, Belgium, and the Netherlands.
